

World Heritage Day

Students of classes VII and VIII celebrated World Heritage Day on 18 April 2024. To raise awareness about diverse cultural heritage and exigency to conserve and preserve them a Special Assembly was conducted for classes VII and VIII. Students used this opportunity to promote recognition and appreciation of these valuable assets. An insightful poem was presented by students of class VII B followed by an informative speech presented by students of class VII D to foster a deeper understanding of their cultural and historical significance.
